Remember My Scars

In the Civil War a general saw one of his officers in deadly combat with the enemy. The officer was losing and would be killed. The general dismounted from his horse to help. In the fight the general's face was slashed by the enemy's sword from eye to chin, but the general killed the enemy and saved his officer's life.

Years later the two men were in opposing political camps, each running for the same office. Both were scheduled to speak on the same program. While the older man gave his speech, the younger noticed the scar on the general's cheek. He remembered that day on the battlefield how the general risked his life to save him from the enemy.

When it was his turn to speak, he arose and said, "I had planned to say some mean things against my opponent, but I cannot. I cannot forget the scar."

Jesus does not want us to forget His scars. On Easter evening when the risen Christ appeared to His disciples, He showed them the nail scars on His hands and feet. We must never forget His scars of love which saved us from everlasting death in hell.

Let us find great joy and hope in His Easter scars. Let us show our thanks and love to Him. Let us get some scars on our hands and feet in devoted service to Him. St. Paul did. He said, "I bear on my body the marks [scars] of Jesus. (Gal. 6:17)

The John of Beverley Chapel, Dallas, Tex.

Ebenezer Project Completed

A wonderful blessing has been given the deaf of Dallas — a chapel they can call their own. The John of Beverley Chapel, built for the special needs of a deaf congregation, was dedicated Nov. 20, 1966.

Ever since the first worship service was conducted for the deaf in March 1932, the deaf have looked forward to this day. Over those seemingly long years the deaf patiently worshiped in various buildings and facilities which were not designed for their needs. They had only limited access to borrowed facilities for worship and fellowship. Because Dallas had no resident pastor working with the deaf, their spiritual life lacked guidance and encouragement in Christian education and service.

The picture has changed. We praise our God who helps us, for on July 26, 1964, Rev. William Duey was installed as the first resident pastor in Dallas.

We praise our God, who has helped us until now. Through His guidance a grant of $25,000 was drawn in advance from the 1967 Ebenezer Thankoffering for building the new chapel. This allowed the deaf to take advantage of the opportunity to join hands with a hearing congregation, thereby cutting down the cost for operating expenses and finding a church home for their hearing children.

We praise our God, who guided Our Redeemer Lutheran Church (hearing) in their decision to relocate and provide larger and better facilities for their growing congregation. Their Christian love for those living in the “silent world” led them to develop a unique building program which included not only a chapel for the deaf as a part of their congregational life, but also an office for their pastor.

Unique Chapel

The John of Beverley Chapel is unique in its design and function. Built in the shape of a circle, the chapel symbolizes that the church will continue forever.

The chapel has been planned to “show Jesus.” As the worshiper enters the chapel, his eye is first

Interior view of the John of Beverley Chapel, equipped, designed, and furnished to satisfy the needs of a deaf congregation drawn to the "Jesus' hands" cross. In the center of the cross above the altar two large hands have been skillfully fabricated from a flat sheet of copper in modern design to make the sign Jesus. In its own way it tells the deaf worshipers that this is their chapel, built and furnished for their needs.

The free-standing altar, which has been placed between the pastor and the deaf congregation, allows the worshiper to be totally involved in the worship service.

A rear screen projection unit has been included so that slides, filmstrips, or movies operated by remote control may be used in the worship service. The unit eliminates the need to darken the chapel and has the same viewing effect as a large 6-foot-square television screen.

Lighting in the chapel has been specially designed and placed to prevent shadows so that the deaf may always see the pastor's lips and signs for a more complete understanding of the service.

The "Jesus' hands" Cross

The cross is the central focal point in the worshiper's view in the John of Beverley Chapel. It is a symbol of the crucified but victorious Christ who gives His people that peace which is above all understanding. (See cover)

The work of art in modern design was sculptured from a copper sheet by Prof. Heri Bert Bartscht of the University of Dallas.

The Lord Helps Us

The Lord has blessed the deaf of Dallas with their own chapel. He has given it to us for a purpose — that we might “show Jesus” to the estimated 1,000 deaf population of the Greater Dallas area.

The Lord helps us more and more to realize our blessings of pardon and peace which we have through faith in Jesus, His Son. He helps us to hear His command to go and preach His Good News to every person.

We dedicated our new chapel together with our hearts and lives to the building of God’s silent kingdom on earth. We gratefully acknowledge His blessings of the past as we continue to seek His grace and strength for the future.

REV. WILLIAM E. DUEY

Political Unrest in Macao

Hong Kong Report

In the few years that have quickly passed, the Lord has showered His blessings on our Lutheran Church’s work among the deaf of the Far East. These blessings also touched Macao. I especially remember Christmas Day of 1965, when it was my privilege to be visiting there. We all rejoiced as 27 deaf children were baptized on that happy day.

More recently incidents have been happening in Macao which add more burden to the difficult tasks of our church. Riots broke out early in December 1966 as many Chinese citizens showed support for the Red China of Mao Tse-Tung.

Rev. Philip Ho, one of our Lutheran pastors working with the deaf in Hong Kong, reported that several deaf students who usually regularly attend the Evening School for the Deaf in Macao have not been coming to class. Their parents are fearful of letting them go out at night.

In his letter of Jan. 22 Pastor Ho wrote:

I am sorry to tell you that the situation in Macao is still very serious. Last week many people came to live in Hong Kong intending to stay for some time. Only a few people went the opposite way back to Macao. No doubt it will further affect the school attendance.

We do pray earnestly that peace will be restored soon so that the children can go back to school for the study they often enjoy.

I would certainly ask that you remember these deaf in Macao in your daily prayers.

The National Technical Institute for the Deaf

The new 600-student National Technical Institute for the Deaf (NTID) will be located in Rochester, N. Y., near the Rochester Institute of Technology. The NTID will be the first technical college for the deaf in the United States and is expected to admit its first class in September 1969.

Students in the NTID program will have opportunities to work for degrees in all areas of study now offered by the Rochester Institute of Technology. These include the school's well-known programs in photography, printing, fine arts, applied arts, sciences, and business. Other new programs may also be developed.

The Federal Government is sponsoring NTID through the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. The programs of NTID, including room, board, and tuition, are free to deaf students who qualify for admission.

The cost of establishing NTID is estimated at $12,000,000.

Dr. D. Robert Frisina, dean of the Graduate School at Gallaudet College, Washington, D. C., has been selected to head the new NTID. Dr. Frisina will be responsible for recruitment and training of staff, for the design and coordination of the educational programs, and as an adviser in the construction of facilities.

Lutheran Campus Ministry

Establishing the NTID in Rochester, N. Y., has much significance for our Alpha Lutheran Church of the Deaf. Last year this congregation acquired new facilities by purchasing a church building which seats 150 persons.

These new facilities will give the congregation the headquarters for involving itself with the spiritual needs of NTID's deaf students in a campus-oriented ministry.

The congregation is currently serving the spiritual needs of deaf children at the 250-pupil state-supported school for the deaf in Rochester.

As this story is written, the Rochester Field is vacant, and the congregation is calling a new pastor.

Council of Organizations Serving the Deaf

New York City, N. Y.

The first board meeting of the newly established Council of Organizations Serving the Deaf was held at Kennedy Airport's International Hotel, Jan. 27.

Nine national religious and service agencies were represented at the organizational meeting of the Council, which is concerned with the economic and social welfare of the estimated 200,000 to 250,000 deaf now living in the United States.

“Success” is the sign made by the board members of the newly established Council of Organizations Serving the Deaf, which held its first meeting in New York City, Jan. 27. Through the Council the national member organizations hope to better serve the deaf

Standing (l. to r.): Rev. Daniel Pokorny, Loy E. Golladay, Dr. Elizabeth Benson, Max Friedman, Don G. Pettingill, Guy J. Lively, and Gordon W. Clarke

The primary purpose of the Council is to help eliminate social and economic barriers that prevent the deaf from leading satisfying and successful lives.

In addition the Council will support medical efforts to prevent deafness. It will seek to help the deaf by strengthening and coordinating the services and resources of the Council's member agencies.

The Council will develop ways of financing its work through both voluntary and tax-supported organizations. It will seek funds for special projects from interested organizations and agencies such as the Vocational Rehabilitation Administration, which for many years has promoted the development of employment counseling and training programs for the deaf.

Officers elected for the new Council are: president for two years, Mervin Garretson (Silver Spring, Md., secretary-treasurer of the National Association of the Deaf); president-elect, Edward C. Carney (Beltsville, Md., president of the American Athletic Association of the Deaf); vice-president, Emil S. Ladner (Berkeley, Calif., president of the International Catholic Deaf Association); secretary, Kenneth F. Huff (Delavan, Wis., president of the Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf); and treasurer, Rev. H. W. Rohe (St. Louis, Mo., secretary for deaf missions of The Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod).

Other agencies represented in the Council of Organizations Serving the Deaf, besides the five which we have named together with the officers listed above, are: the Gallaudet College Alumni Association, the National Fraternal Society of the Deaf, the Conference of Church Workers Among the Deaf (Episcopal), and the National Congress of Jewish Deaf.

In addition to a softball game, the children enjoy various group games, hiking, and the picnic lunch. At the end of the day they are given attendance awards for being a part of Holy Cross Congregation's Saturday school and worship services during the school year

Adult members of Holy Cross proudly assume responsibility for their church's program of religious education for these Lutheran children at the Ohio State School for the Deaf. They also plan the picnic. Rev. William A. Ludwig is pastor

GLEANINGS

Surprise Celebration

Madison, Wis. Members and friends of Silent Lutheran Church, Madison, held a surprise dinner for Rev. and Mrs. Robert Corl, Jr., on Sunday, Dec. 11. The occasion was in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Corl as they observed their 20th wedding anniversary on Dec. 27.

Some 55 friends gathered for the dinner and program, which was arranged by Mrs. Harold Schrank. As their gift to the happy and truly surprised couple, the deaf gave them a money tree.

Deaf Gather

Delavan, Wis. On Sunday, Jan. 29, members of the entire Southern Wisconsin Field served by Rev. Martin Kosche gathered for a special event of unity, fellowship, and discussion.

The day's activities began at 10:00 a. m. with a worship service celebrating the Lord's Supper. This was followed by a fellowship dinner at noon, for which each family brought a covered dish.

Soon after dinner a meeting of all members was held to discuss the work of our church. The theme of the day was, "Take a Look at the Things That Are Really Important." Discussion topics included: (1) a look at our Field, (2) a look at our Region, (3) a look at our Synod, and (4) a look at Ebenezer. The chief purpose of the meeting was to give each participating member a little more understanding of the work of our church at home as well as in all the world.

Regional Conferences

Included in this issue the reader will find announcements for the annual Regional Conferences.

Host congregations and the regional planning committees provide a well balanced program usually scheduled over a weekend. Each congregation of the region is represented at the conference by several participating members. They gather in Christian fellowship, worship and study for mutual encouragement and inspiration to do the work of Jesus in their deaf churches. The deaf have opportunity to share ideas and the programs of their home congregations.

If you have never attended a conference, you have missed something important.

If you are interested in attending the conference in your area, contact the pastor of the host city for registration and program details. His address is listed on page 64.

Stamps for Missions

St. Louis, Mo. Stamps for Missions president Raymond E. Hodges recently reported that sales of cancelled postage stamps amounted to $7,600 during 1966.

This amount was $400 above the 1965 total. In addition the Stamps for Missions organization received four "fine stamp collections" which netted more than $1,000.

The profits are invested in our church's synodical Church Extension Fund. The interest received from this investment pays for the expenses of printing, supplies, and postage.

During 1966 Stamps for Missions allocated $35,000 for a new seminary in New Guinea and $1,000 for a school boarding home in Zacapa, Guatemala.

Hodges reported that millions of cancelled stamps are thrown away by individual Lutherans who are unable to place them in boxes in churches or schools. He urged congregations to install such boxes, publicize Stamps for Missions in church bulletins, and check with his office for specific details concerning types of cancelled stamps which can be sold.

Stamps for Missions is located at 210 North Broadway, St. Louis, Mo. 63102.

Swimming and Diving Meet Planned

Philadelphia, Pa. The first National Invitational Swimming and Diving Meet, sponsored by the Pennsylvania Society for the Advancement of the Deaf, will be held at the Philadelphia Aquatic School in Philadelphia, May 19 to 21.

A Friday evening reception will be highlighted by the showing of the 1965 USA-IGD movies.

On Saturday all types of swimming and diving competition will be scheduled. Depending, of course, on the number of entries, championship finals will be extended to Sunday.

All interested individuals and organizations are encouraged to write for entry blanks to Mr. Charles Boyd, Meet Director, 9549 Milnor St., Torresdale, Philadelphia, Pa. 19114.

LIGHT FOR YOUR WAY

Daily Bible Readings for April

God blesses His faithful people with life after death.

- April 1 — Psalm 107. No matter what the situation, God can and will take care of His children. Pray that God's blessing and guidance may be upon the children of your congregation who are away from home. Pray also for Mrs. Catherine Bengelsdorf, pastor's wife, Des Moines, Iowa, and Rev. Arnold Jonas, Los Angeles, Calif.
- April 2 — 2 Corinthians 5:1-13. May the Lord help you to look beyond the grave with the same trusting faith as Paul's. Pray that God may bless you with such a faith.
- April 3 — 2 Corinthians 5:14-21. God has made you a new being in Jesus Christ. Can others see this in your daily life? Ask God's Holy Spirit to give you courage and faith to live that new life in Christ.
- April 4 — Genesis 18:1-19. God's greatest promise is salvation. Let us think of all God's blessings in the light of our salvation. Pray for all who worship in your church that they may know God is with them there.
- April 5 — Genesis 22:1-19. God gave His Son for you. Have you been afraid to give? Pray for the families of our church that they all may worship God in family devotions at home.
- April 6 — Genesis 25:27—26:11. Weakness of faith leads man to forget to trust his God. Pray for the members of your congregation that they depend on God in time of trouble. Pray also for Mrs. Eleanor Bauer, pastor's wife, Edmonton, Alta., Can.

- April 7 — Genesis 49:1-12. The Lord has chosen you to be His. Do you expect Him to keep His promises? Pray for your pastors and teachers that they lead us in the spirit of Christ.
- April 8 — Deuteronomy 18:9-22. The Word that Jesus gives is spirit and life. Pray for the whole Christian church that God would forgive us and that we may hear and understand our Savior Jesus.
- April 9 — Psalms 2. Amid wars and rumors of war the Lord Jesus will continue to build His church. Pray for those Christians serving their country in South Vietnam, that they be strengthened in their faith.
- April 10 — Psalms 118:14-29. Remember what it cost for the Lord to save you. Pray for those who are burdened with the shame and guilt of their sin, that they may be comforted in Jesus.
- April 11 — Isaiah 2:1-5. Do you live peacefully with your fellow Christians? Pray for the teachers of the church that they understand and believe the Word they teach.
- April 12 — Isaiah 5:1-23. Are you too busy to help with the little tasks of your church? Pray for those who bring the love of God to the poor and needy in the church's welfare work.
- April 13 — Isaiah 7:10-16. Lord, You have come to us so that we may know You as the crucified and risen Savior. Pray for the new members of your congregation that they may accept the promises of God and live according to His Word.
- April 14 — Isaiah 9:1-7. Loving Savior, I have received Your forgiveness. Please give me counsel and peace. Pray that all may know the peace of God which is above all understanding.
- April 15 — Isaiah 11:1-10. Dear God, give us Your continued grace to bring Your peace to men. Pray for your pastor that the Holy Spirit will guide his work. Pray also for Mrs. Marilyn Gehrs, pastor's wife, Riverside, Calif.
- April 16 — Isaiah 53. Dear Savior, my sin caused You to suffer and die. Give me comfort in Your forgiveness and the hope of eternal life. Pray for the deaf of the world, especially those living in areas of war and trouble.
- April 17 — Isaiah 55. The Lord has given us wonderful promises. Pray that more deaf may be eager to study and know God's Word.
- April 18 — Isaiah 61. Lord, help me live my life for You. Pray for all our missionaries as they travel to serve the Lord. Pray also for Rev. Daniel Pokorny, Indianapolis, Ind.
- April 19 — Psalms 32. Father, You have called me Your child. Help me to depend on Your never-ending love. Pray for all the members in your congregation that their sins be forgiven.

- April 20 — Hebrews 1. Only God could save you. Give yourself to Him alone. Pray for the children in your congregation that their faith in Jesus may be strengthened.
- April 21 — Hebrews 2. Only the God-man has saved you. How great is His love! Ask God to help you overcome your pride so that you may trust fully in Him. Pray also for Rev. George Ring, Sioux Falls, S. Dak., and Rev. Walter Westermann, Greensboro, N. C.
- April 22 — Hebrews 3. Dear God, I know the truth of Your salvation, because You have given me faith. Pray for the love to forgive those who sin against you.
- April 23 — Hebrews 4. Have you told others about your hope of eternal life? Pray that all unchurched deaf may be taught the truth. Pray also for Mrs. Alberta Jonas, pastor's wife, Los Angeles, Calif.
- April 24 — Hebrews 5. Glorious Lord, Your love and majesty are without end. Pray that God would give you humility to worship and serve Him.
- April 25 — Hebrews 6. The Lord is my Shepherd. Do I hear His voice with joy? Pray that the children in your Sunday school be kept strong in the faith. Pray also for Mrs. Marie Ferber, pastor's wife, Kansas City, Mo.
- April 26 — Hebrews 7. Salvation is won, I am forgiven. Ask the Holy Spirit to give you the trust and courage to tell others this wonderful news.
- April 27 — Hebrews 8. Do you appreciate the new covenant brought by Jesus? Pray that God may strengthen your faith in time of temptation. Pray also for Rev. Walter Busby, Miami, Fla.
- April 28 — Hebrews 9. By the blood of Christ you are made clean that you may serve Him as you wait in hope for heaven. Pray that all members of your congregation may serve Him. Pray also for Mrs. Anna Bailey, pastor's wife, Oakland, Calif.
- April 29 — Hebrews 10. What are you doing to keep your fellow Christians from falling away from God? Pray that God may give you courage and strength for such acts of encouragement and love.
- April 30 — Psalm 135. I will bless the Lord, for He delivers in time of trouble. Pray that God may strengthen you in the hour of your weakness that you may always hope in His eternal mercy.

Remember your Ebenezer Thankoffering and pray:

O Holy Spirit, lead those who celebrate birthdays this month to a deeper understanding of the glories of Your creation, the blessings of Your salvation, and the purifying power of Your helping them to live their new life. Keep them from the empty pride of self-satisfaction, preserve them from the boredom of breathing without living for You, and open their eyes to see You as their daily Creator, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
