DEAF LUTHERAN DEVOTION

Rev. Mark Anderson,
ILDA Pastoral Advisor

Now that summer is almost here, and also, some of us will be going to the ILDA Convention at Indianapolis at the end of June, what should we do as orthodox Lutheran Christians in our service to the Lord God? I just remembered one certain biblical verse of which we all should be aware at all times while we live and witness our Christian faith. I Corinthians 10:31 reads:

...whenever you eat or drink or do anything else, do everything to glorify God.

I Corinthians 10 ends that we should not be the reason for others to sin, no matter if they are Jews, Greeks, or God's church ... [we] try to please everyone in every way and don't look for [our selfish reasons] but for ... many people so that they may be saved.

With that in our mind, we ask ourselves how we can live our life that would most please God. The Jews asked Jesus what they should do to please God. Do you know the answer Jesus gave them? The answer is found in John 6:29, which says: What God wants you to do is to believe in [Jesus] Whom [the Lord God] sent.

Of course, the Jews were not satisfied with Jesus' answer and demanded proof that He perform a miracle of some kind before they could believe Him. It turned out that they did not have saving faith in the first place to either believe in Him or please the Lord God in any way. After all, it is impossible to please God without saving faith, no matter how good or sincere a person may be in whatever he/she is doing in the service of people (Isaiah 64:6).

The point I am saying is that in order for us to please God, He alone has grace to create faith in us through Word and Sacrament (Holy Baptism and Lord's Supper) and then empower us to please Him in all what we do to glorify Him. The Holy Spirit works ceaselessly to enlighten us with His gifts and sanctify and keep us in the true faith so that we may faithfully do whatever our Heavenly Father had long ago planned for us in His Beloved Son.

We will work together in the upcoming ILDA convention as brothers and sisters in Christ to find new ways to proclaim the Gospel while staying faithful to the pure proclamation of the Gospel which has the power to save sinners. While we share God's love with all sinners, it is very important for us to keep our eyes always on our Savior who begins and completes our faith (Hebrews 12:2).

Matthew 5:16 NRSV

From your ILDA 2001 Host...

Dear brothers and sisters,

Greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ! The last few weeks have been hard but exciting for us, the host committee, to get ready for the 2001 ILDA convention. We are anticipating a very good convention.

There will be a big program for the drivers who come to Indianapolis from the South and the Southeast as there is road construction work going on now in the Southeastern part of I-465 and I-74 interchange. There may be one on I-745 and I-70 interchange on the East Side of the city. So, please use the Internet or AAA to help you go around these sections.

Please make your plane reservations NOW, as there will be approximately 40,000 other conventioners in the city during the weekend (June 21-24). It is advisable that you come in later in the day (June 21), as the time for room check-in is 4 PM so you won't have to wait long. The hotel is fully booked on June 20 and it will take time for housekeeping to clean your rooms. There will be a room to store your luggage for those who come in early in the day/afternoon.

Upon your arrival at the Indianapolis airport, please go to the ground transportation center to get a limousine. It will be cheaper if you have some people to go with you. Try to avoid a taxicab, as the meter will keep on running even if it stops/waits at construction sites. That will be very expensive!

There will be a table for you to sign up for the return trip to the airport on Sunday, June 21. More information will be given at the convention.

Please send in your ILDA convention and hotel registration forms as soon as possible. We are pleased with the responses from you who already sent in your forms.

We thank you for your generous donations to help make the 2001 convention a possibility for you to attend. God answered our prayers !!

We are looking forward to seeing you here in Indianapolis. Our theme is "Choose this day whom you will serve" — Joshua 24:14.

Have a safe trip to Indianapolis.

Yours in Christ,

Winona Alter, 2001 convention chairperson

Editorial...

Greeting everyone in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ! In a few more weeks, we all will be meeting at ILDA's Indianapolis 2001 Convention and see old friends again. I hope that many of you will be coming. Many of us ILDA Officers and Regional Presidents has spent long hours and hard work in preparing for the coming convention. This convention is a good time to meet your new counselor for deaf missions, Rev. Roger Altenberger.

In the last issue of the newsletter, I have listed all the LCMS deaf churches. In this issue you will find a listing of LCMS deaf mission churches.

It has come to my attention that some of you are not keeping the Deaf Lutheran Business Manager up-to-date on your correct address. This is very important, because you readers have paid for your subscription, you do not want to miss any issue that may have gone to your old address or to the Post Office's trash can. Check your mailing label to make sure it is correct. We do not want to raise the subscription rate, but any unnecessary expenses may some day cause the rate to go up. We are non-profit and all our expenses depend on your subscription fees and donations. Often in November before renewal invoices are mailed, our funds becomes very low.

The Deaf Lutheran is allowed up to $1,000 per year of advertising. I don't know if this has been done in the past, but the Handbook said we can do it. After the convention, I will try to figure out a rate for advertising. Ads must be in good standing and related to our ILDA and LCMS Deaf Missions.

If you haven't already done so, please visit ILDA's web site! The site address is:

www.LCMSdeaf.org

See you all in Indianapolis!

PS: Several weeks ago, Sharon and I have received news from our daughter that we will be first time grandparents in early November!

News from Rockford Lutheran Church of the Deaf...

This letter was sent to me by Mrs. Lois Nelson, Secretary and long time member of Rockford LC.

Our pastor is Rev. Mark Anderson who is hired by the Northern Illinois District. We have a small membership but we believe God will take care of our needs. Our most recent budget included several mission projects. We were able to fund all our mission projects for last year with God's help.

Last year (2000) we celebrated our 40-year anniversary. We had a wonderful banquet at a nice restaurant.

Our Deaconess, Laura Budzynski, happens to live in Rockford area and continues to give Bible studies and interpreting where needed. After marrying Jay, almost seven years ago, they finally adopted a cute baby boy who was born in September of 1999. Then, to their surprise, Laura got pregnant and gave birth to a baby girl in June 2000. Now they are blessed with the two babies and a new home too. God bless them!

We lost our beloved member, Alice Suhr, to death last November, 2000. She is survived by six children and many grandchildren.

We, members of Rockford Lutheran Church of the Deaf, wish ILDA 2001 a big success and God's blessing! Let ILDA continue for many years to come.

Macau Mission...

This news was obtained from The Mustard Seed, Christ Lutheran Deaf Church, Silver Spring. Sara McKinney is a servant of Christ in Macau. We enjoy her email newsletters and think our readers will, too. I regret we don't have room for more. Thank you, Sara, and may the lord bless your work there.

Hello from Macau... from Sara Ann McKinney (condensed from a long email)

Thanksgiving is not celebrated among Chinese people. We spent a few weeks explaining to everyone why we celebrate Thanksgiving. They, the students, don't really have a lot to be thankful for, aside from the new school. Their home life is about the same; many still have communication problems and frequent putdowns, etc. However they are learning that they need to be thankful for whatever they get.

The students worked very hard on their Christmas skit. The play was called "Bah Humbug." It was based on the Scrooge Christmas story but with a Christian twist. Instead of ghosts, we had angels sharing the spirit of Christmas. Cecilia Chan, another teacher at school, and I wrote the script. None of us could believe the day arrived where we had to actually do the play. Everyone seemed to enjoy the play and for that I'm very thankful. Wendy, Gloria, and Bonnie opted to sign a song in American Sign Language instead of doing the play. They did a wonderful job signing "Silent Night" in ASL. They were really eager to learn the song in ASL. The girls want to thank Pastor Matthews for sending the video of Christmas songs in ASL.

On Dec. 20th Bonnie, Gloria, and I took a trip to Zhuhai, China. We stayed at a nice hotel and had our own little Christmas Party. I shared stories of my past Christmases with them. Christmas is only another excuse for a party here in Macau. No one really knows the true meaning of Christmas, except those who are Christians. Everyone else just goes out to party. Wendy asked, "Why does everyone celebrate Christmas when they don't know the true meaning of Christmas?" [ed. note: it doesn't seem much different from here in the USA.] Most of my students, families don't do anything special for Christmas. They wait until the Chinese New Year to do something. The Chinese New Year is very big here, just like Christmas is in the States.

On Christmas Day, my roommates and I rose early to open up our stocking gifts to each other and get all the last minute things ready before everyone else arrived. It was a very fun and full day. I wish to say Thank You to everyone who sent me Christmas Blessings and Prayers. It was very much appreciated.

Aside from all the holidays, I have wonderful news to share. The girls will be going to the National Youth Gathering in New Orleans for sure. We have a school in Hong Kong that would like to support our way there. They will help with most of the costs but we still need to raise more money for the rest of the trip. I am so happy that the girls will be able to go and meet other Christians their age as well as learn about the American Culture. If you wish to help with the costs, please contact me at mckinnsa@yahoo.com or Diane Meyer, DCE at djmeyer@uslink.net or (218) 326-5453. Diane is helping me take care of things on the other side of the world. Thanks Diane!

A lot of people have asked me how Diana Lei is doing. I am happy to say she is doing very well. She is home now visiting her family for Christmas and the Chinese New Year. She will return to the states in February and begin studies in March at Fort Wayne Seminary. She is missing all of her friends in America and is very eager to return. She has learned so much about Deaf rights in America that she doesn't feel very comfortable here anymore. She says she doesn't like the way many here put down deaf people by not letting them do anything. But she is happy to have real Chinese food again. Smile!

Thank you all for your prayers and support. Hope you all have a great New Year. Remember that even though a new year is approaching and life is changing, one thing doesn't change... God's Love for all of us.
