President Carol Seeger

Greetings from not-so-warm Pflugerville, Texas (now, we're having wintry chill with below average temperatures, no kidding! Brrr) in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ! By the way, Happy New Year 2024!

Now, it's hard to believe 2023 is already gone, with so many happenings, both unexpected and expected. As for me, God has blessed me in many ways, for example: spiritual growth at Jesus Sign workshop week, some wonderful Christian fellowships with both new and old friends, visiting family and friends on our trips, etc. However, I had some unexpected occurrences, one of which was the loss of my best friend, Debbie (who was Deaf and blind) since we were 4 years old. On the bright side, she is now with Jesus because of her faith in Him and I will see her again when my time comes! In October, I was in Minneapolis, MN to attend a Celebration of Life for her at the beautiful Minnehaha Falls Park where I was one of five people to give a eulogy. There was a big attendance. I would say, at least 100 people, so obviously, Debbie was really well loved!

Now, let me share two combined sermons of our former pastor at our church, Bethany Lutheran and my husband, Rev. Mark Seeger. The theme of the sermon was "A Whole New You!" The celebration of the New Year, both pastors used one of the Bible verses: "If anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come; the old has gone, the new is here!" (2 Cor. 5:17) Let us make this verse our number one New Year resolution! It is to cast out our old identity and create our new identity with Christ by being reconciled to God completely. In order to become a whole new person, we need to be reconciled to God and become righteous in Him. How can we do this? In Rev. Seeger's message: Every year on Dec. 31st at midnight, a new year begins. People all over the world celebrate the New Year. It happens every year. Some people like to make New Year's resolutions.

What's a resolution? It's a decision to do something to improve yourself. For example: 1) exercise more often, 2) eat healthier, 3) go out and help less fortunate people, 4) manage money better, etc. There is nothing wrong with trying to improve yourself. Actually it's good to try to get rid of bad habits and develop good habits. Trying to change from the way you were to the way you want to become is great. You might want to become a more caring person by stop arguing, become friendlier or more forgiving, or more helpful, etc.

What's the best way to become the new you? Let

God do it! He wants to change you! Read Ezekiel 11:19; Eph. 4:22-24; Col. 3:9-10 and 1 Peter 1:3.

Pastoral Advisor Rev. Daryl Gehlbach

It's rather interesting that Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent, falls on Valentine's Day this year. It's interesting because the weeks leading up to Easter are a time to explore the theme of love – God's love. "God so loved the world," the Gospel of John declares, "that He gave His Only-Begotten Son." Anyone who doesn't understand why Jesus suffered, died, and rose again, doesn't understand love.

Sin is an offense against God. His holy, divine justice demands punishment for our law-breaking. We face death – eternal death. Yet God doesn't desire the death of anyone.

The solution to our sin is rooted in His love. The Apostle John writes "We know love. How? He laid down His life for us." Jesus took upon Himself our sin and guilt, and He willingly paid the blood-price required for our redemption.

Yet, our Lord's love is not something that He simply showed long ago. It continues even now. His love is present within all who believe in Him. His Spirit dwells within us, growing the fruit of love. He strengthens our hearts to hold fast to our first love – Jesus. He causes God's love to overflow in works of love toward one another and our neighbor. In doing so, we fulfill the Law in a God-pleasing way.

As we approach another Valentine's Day, we must resist the world's temptations to define and express love apart from God. His love is not found in cards, candy, or romantic dinners. Instead, we should seek His love where He clearly reveals it – the cross of Jesus. There, in our Savior's suffering and death, we see love in action, a love that redeems us, a love that continually fills our hearts with joy and hope.

"Let your steadfast love, O LORD, be upon us, even as we hope in you."

- Production is wrapping up of the 60-lesson video course on church history being done by Bob Lenderman in American Sign Language (ASL). When completed he will return to his first love, translating Scriptures into ASL so those whose heart language is ASL will have access to the Word of God.

DIT: Deaf Institute of Theology

- LDMS continues to support students studying to become pastors and deaconesses at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis. The seminary has a covenant with the students so that the seminary pays one third of the student's tuition, their district pays one third and the student and congregation pay one third. With LDMS' partnership with ILDA, financial assistance is offered up to the full amount that the student and congregation owe.
- Seminary level courses can be challenging for students whose first language is ASL and use English as a second language. The seminary has given access to the coursework so supplemental help can be created for the students. This is time consuming work. Much of the work has been done, but there are significant materials still to do. Many thanks to those who are producing the materials and to those who are supporting this effort.

News from the 2024 Dearborn, Michigan convention hosts

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, 2024 is finally here!!

We wanted to share with you that the 2024 ILDA Convention will take place at the DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel in Detroit- Dearborn, Michigan. This is a very special occasion because it marks the first time in over 50 years that the convention will be held in Michigan. The convention committee and Our Savior Lutheran Church of the Deaf in Beverly Hills, MI, are working hard to ensure that everything is in place for a remarkable event.

We have already sent approximately 250 registration packages to Deaf Churches and Churches that offer interpreting services in their worship across the United States, and we have started receiving several registrations since November. We are looking forward to receiving more registrations after the holidays.

If you or your church has not received the registration packets, please don't worry. You can go to <https://deafjesus.org/ilda/ILDAconv.html> and print the registration forms and don't forget to fill in your membership card number on the registration form. If you have not renewed or signed up for your ILDA membership, please visit <https://deafjesus.org/ilda/memberinfo.html> to get one. Remember to bring your membership card to the convention for verification purposes.

Also, for more information, please go to this link: <https://www.facebook.com/dearborn.ilda.michigan>. There will be more information coming soon.

We encourage you to participate in this historic event that supports numerous projects worldwide that aim to teach God's word to Deaf people. If you are unable to attend the convention, we ask that you consider supporting ILDA by donating whatever you can to keep the organization strong. The date for the ILDA Convention is July 11 – 14, 2024, so save the date and mark it down on your calendar.

We look forward to seeing you all in Dearborn in July 2024. Let's stay positive and pray without ceasing, especially during these challenging times.

God bless you all, and please stay safe and healthy.
